VICTORY FOR CAR PARK PROTESTORS

PLANS to restrict public access to a riverside car park used by walkers, anglers and boaters have been shelved after senior councillors were forced to reconsider the proposal.

Members of Harlow Council's cabinet made the U-turn after being asked by the call-in committee to rethink their decision to change the site off Burnt Mill Lane into a permit-only zone for Essex County Council staff working at nearby Goodman House.

The deal sparked outrage among regular users of the car park, who accused the council of putting income from County Hall above the needs of residents.

Accepting the committee's recommendation that a pay-and-display system with two hours free parking should be introduced instead, the cabinet agreed to revise the plans accordingly and launch a statutory public consultation on the new proposals next month.

Council leader Andrew Johnson will also be writing to Essex County Council seeking "improved traffic management" on Burnt Mill Lane, which could result in the road's speed limit being lowered.

The rethink has been welcomed by critics of the original plan, who had argued that making the site off-limits to the public during working hours was unfair on anglers, boaters, walkers and the disabled who regularly use the site as an access point to the

Halfon backs call for greater rights for grandparents

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

A HARLOW-based charity fighting for the rights of grandparents has called on the Government to introduce new legislation to help them regain contact with estranged grandchildren.

The Grandparents' Association, which has offices at Bush Fair, presented a 7,200-name petition to 10 Downing Street on Friday pushing for a change in the law to give children the right to a minimum of "letter-box access" to their grandparents – as long as it is safe to do so.

If successful, it would mean that the one million youngsters in the UK who are currently denied contact because of family conflict would have a legal right to receive appropriate cards, presents and letters from their grandparents on special occasions.

Lynn Chesterman, chief executive of the charity, said the campaign had special resonance at this time of year.

"This Christmas thousands of children will not be in touch with their grandparents and will miss out on the love and pride that all grandparents have for their grandchildren," she said.

"Often family conflict is the reason for such estrangement, the majority caused by separation and divorce. The Government's recent Family Justice Review has done little to move this issue forward.

"Despite acknowledging the key role of grandparents, there is no change when it comes to seeking contact and many will still have to resort to costly and lengthy court proceedings if they are denied contact with their grandchildren."

The petition has received the backing of Harlow MP Rob Halfon, who recently called for the issue to be debated in the House of Commons.

He told the Star: "Sadly, across Britain today thousands of children are denied access to their grandparents, even at birthdays and the holiday season. Often this is caused by family conflict.

"To be fair, the Government is looking at this with the recent Family Justice Review but more needs to be done.

"This is why I have now urged the Leader of the House of Commons to look at changing the law."

Passmores head wins national award

PASSMORES Academy principal Vic Goddard, who became a household name after his school featured in Channel 4's Educating Essex series, has been honoured at a national education awards ceremony.

Mr Goddard and Passmores vice principal Stephen Drew were shortlisted in the 'Outstanding Teacher' category in this year's Educational Business Awards, which recognise exceptional teaching and schools.

Mr Goddard came out on top, receiving the award from former BBC newsreader Moira Stewart during a ceremony held at the Emirates Stadium.

"It is obviously always humbling to be recognised in such a manner but in my case I am fully aware of the fact that I will only ever be as good as the staff that work with me and the young people and community I serve," Mr Goddard said after the ceremony.

"I know just how lucky I am to work in Harlow with the most fantastic students anyone could wish for and staff that strive every day to do the best they can for them; I couldn't wish for a better job."

Eteach chief executive Paul Howells said: "Teaching and learning is crucial in schools so it's important that the work of these outstanding teachers is recognised. When you read what they've achieved, it's obvious that you've got to be superhuman to manage a school today!"

Council scraps plans to restrict car park access

River Stort and picturesque Maymeads Marsh Nature Reserve.

Stort Valley Angling Society chairman Mick Westby said: "It is great to see that common sense has prevailed rather than the needs of a minority of Essex County Council employees.

"I would like to congratulate the council for making what is seen by many as the only right decision. To have a pay-and-display system will allow Harlow residents to have access to our lovely riverside areas of the park."

Councillor Tony Hall, the authority's portfolio holder for environment, said: "We will begin consulting in the new year on a pay-and-display car park at the Burnt Mill site.

"This will include up to two hours free car parking at the site. This suggestion was from the call-in committee and we were very happy to consider their recommendations."

He added: "It is important to point out that The Moorhen car park located just round the corner from the site is publicly owned and is free to park in at any time."

Robbery victim threatened with knife

A TEENAGER was robbed at knifepoint on a playing field near Harlow town centre.

The 17-year-old was walking along the cycle track from Asda towards the old Passmores School site in Tendring Road when he was approached by two men.

They forced him to the ground and threatened him with a knife before searching his pockets and stealing his mobile phone.

The robbery took place at 7.50pm on Wednesday, November 30.

Both suspects are described as black, about 5ft 10ins tall, and aged 16-19. One was wearing a black puffa-style jacket, dark jeans and black Nike trainers while the other had on grey jogging bottoms and a black woolly hat.

PC Tom Dinsdale, of Harlow police, said: "Just before the playing field there is a bench where the victim noticed the two suspects. Near to them was a group of four people – three girls and a boy aged between 14 and 16 years.

"If you were one of these people you may have valuable information which could assist in the investigation."

Our aim is to help those who've hit rock bottom

Harlow Chocolate Run has been providing food and clothes to the homeless both locally and in neighbouring towns for more than 40 years. With the group now expanding their services, Star reporter Vicky Lane joined the team of volunteers on their latest 'run'.

THE forlorn figure sitting in a battered wheelchair outside a rowdy fast food restaurant will be just one of hundreds across the county sleeping rough tonight.

Wearing dishevelled clothes inadequate against the chilly weather and with a threadbare, dirty sock covering the stump at the end of one leg, Pete chose the spot for the intermittent draughts of heat that escape from the popular kebab house.

"A lot of these people have hit rock bottom and that is a very lonely place to be," said Mick Granger, organiser of the Harlow Chocolate Run operation that I am following tonight.

"There is a lot of stigma surrounding the homeless yet so many don't realise that it can take just one traumatic event – a relationship break-up, the loss of a job, grief – to leave people like you and me vulnerable.

"Our aim is to help those who have fallen on hard times in whatever way we can."

With the tell-tale scars of self-harm criss-crossing up Pete's arms, he blames childhood abuse for the downward spiral into drink and drugs that lead to his impoverished circumstances.

Yet he is one of the lucky ones tonight. Warmed up with a hot meal and a new winter coat provided by the Harlow Chocolate Run, he will see the next few days through better than many.

Recently the group, a registered charity which has been delivering resources to individuals on the streets every few weeks for more than 40 years, have expanded their services with drop-in clinics at centres throughout the county.

However, they are keen to get more donations and volunteers on board to keep the scheme going.

"The clinics provide somewhere warm where people can stay for a few hours, get a good meal and talk to someone who cares," said Mick.

"Of course, when you are dealing with the homeless you are relying on word of mouth to get the message out so it will take some time and patience. But with the continued support from the incredible people of Harlow we believe it will be really successful."

There are smiles all round as the volunteers hand out the last of the hot meals and warm clothes to grateful recipients.

"Nothing can describe that feeling of knowing you have made a difference," Mick tells me on the way home. "Even if we only helped make one person's life that bit easier tonight then I know we have done a good job."

Beat the Big Chill

Stop water pipes from bursting this winter by keeping them snug.

Last year in a single day, Veolia Water received 1,600 calls from local families with frozen or burst pipes at home.

You can stop this happening to your home by lagging your pipes – it's quick, easy and cheap to do.

You wouldn't expose yourself to the elements, so look after your internal pipes too. Don't get caught out, visit

Theatre group given share of water firm's community funding

CHRISTMAS has come early for one Harlow theatre group after members unwrapped a £2,300 donation from water firm Veolia.

The Livewire Trust, which provides free arts and drama classes to young people across the town, will use its share of the firm's £50,000 Community Investment Fund to run a weekly empowerment course for local schoolchildren.

The confidence-boosting project will encourage those taking part to learn skills promoting responsibility, team work and self motivation before culminating in a production put together by the youngsters themselves.

Project manager Sam Ashford, pictured above with Gavin Jackson of Veolia Water at one of the group's sessions, explained: "Young people have been put forward for the project by local schools and we at Livewire aim to use theatre skills to work through their issues and empower them to be creative and dynamic."

Richard Bienfait, managing director of Veolia Water Central, said: "We are delighted to support local groups through our Community Investment Fund. We increased the fund from £30,000 in 2010 to £50,000 this year as we had so many worthy applications.

"Veolia Water cares for its local community and we hope the fund will make a difference to the groups which have been selected this year."

Cash windfall for allotment group

A GROUP of Harlow allotment holders are celebrating after securing a £1,500 grant to help purchase a much-needed storage container.

The keen gardeners who tend the Linford End allotments have received the donation from Essex County Council through its West Area Forum Budget for 2010/11, which was set up to put money back into local communities.

Selma Granger, who acts as fundraiser for the site, said: "The funding has enabled us to purchase a storage container that will greatly benefit the site and its plot holders by providing a safe place to store items that many would find hard to replace.

"On behalf of all the plot holders who will benefit from this project, chairman of the LEA committee Phil Broadbent and I would like to thank ECC for making it possible."

Hospice lottery

THE winner of the £1,000 prize in the St Clare Hospice lottery drawn on Friday, December 9 is ticket holder 799406, who lives in Harlow.

The second prize of £100 goes to the holder of ticket number 698065, who also lives in Harlow.

More cuts are 'inevitable' - council chief

THE leader of Essex County Council has warned of "tough times ahead" as the cash-strapped authority struggles to balance its books in anticipation of further Government funding cuts.

Councillor Peter Martin delivered a speech on Tuesday in which he outlined the financial challenges facing the council, warning that further service cuts were "inevitable" next year.

"Nationally, we face a historically unprecedented period of sustained public spending reductions lasting at least seven years," he said.

"Unfortunately, we cannot escape this challenge in Essex. Seventy per cent of our funding comes from central government so reductions announced nationally have to be implemented locally."

The council has already recouped almost £150m after cutting jobs and scaling back service provision, but Cllr Martin said the authority's transformation programme would have to deliver even more savings next year.

"We will continue to keep residents, partners and staff informed as we continue to transform the way we work, look for new and different ways of doing things, strengthen our partnerships and also look at how we can utilise the capacity and expertise of the private sector and of our voluntary and community sector in order to save money and continue to provide frontline services," he added.

Badger group's plea to drivers

MOTORISTS are being urged to extra care when topping up their vehicles with antifreeze this winter.

The Harlow Badger Group, set up to protect and conserve the town's population of badgers, say animals could be at risk if spilt antifreeze is not cleaned up properly.

"We want to give a general warning to people at a time when they are topping up their radiators with antifreeze to be extra vigilant," said chairman Derek Barry.

"Just a little bit of antifreeze spilt on the ground could be enough to poison an animal if it gets licked up or even harm a small child."

Just a few licks of antifreeze can prove fatal for pets and wildlife, while as little as 10ml of the liquid is enough to kill a child.

● The Harlow Badger Group meets bi-monthly and is always looking for new members. For more information call Mr Barry on (01279) 503332.

Man locked up for sex assault

A MAN convicted of a sexually assaulting a woman while she slept in a bed at the home of a friend has been jailed for 18 months.

Abel Gonzales Santana (34), of Hart Road, Harlow, denied the charge but was found guilty by a jury at Chelmsford Crown Court last month.

Sentence was adjourned until last Thursday after the trial judge called for reports.

During the week-long trial the court was told that Santana had gone back to the house in Harlow with a group of people after an evening out on March 31 this year.

Giving evidence, the 25-year-old victim said she had been feeling a bit tipsy and had a few puffs of a joint of cannabis when she decided to go to sleep in the house owner's bed.

She told the jury she then became aware of someone at the end of the bed pulling up the covers and sliding under the duvet.

"He was climbing up my legs and I felt my shorts and underwear being pulled down to my shins," she said. "I felt something touch my private parts."

She said she was scared and several times told the man to "get off and get out".

Eventually she managed to push him to one side and when he rolled on to the floor she saw his jeans were around his knees.

At that point someone else in the house came upstairs.

Santana claimed that he lay down on top of the bed while the woman was asleep and insisted nothing sexual had taken place at all.

However, the jury returned a 11-1 majority verdict of guilty.

Last week judge Charles Gratwicke sentenced the defendant to 18 months in prison. He also ordered that Santana must sign the Sex Offenders' Register for seven years.

PAH fracture unit one of best in UK

THE hip fracture unit at Harlow's Princess Alexandra Hospital has been recognised as one of the best in the country.

The Dr Foster Hospital Guide – an independent assessment of the performance of NHS hospitals across the UK – highlighted PAH's record for ensuring elderly fracture patients get the operation they need within two days of suffering the injury.

Patients arriving in A&E with a fractured hip are assessed and made ready for surgery as soon as possible.

After surgery the patients are sent to Harold Ward, where doctors, nurses, physios and other therapists put together individual rehabilitation programmes to help with their recovery.

Research has shown that quick treatment significantly reduces the risk of death or lasting disability for elderly people who seriously hurt themselves in a fall.

PAH consultant Jane Snook, said: "Having a dedicated hip fracture unit has led to a substantial improvement in care for this vulnerable group of patients."

Carol singers raise the roof to entertain Christmas shoppers

YOUNG members of an inclusive performing arts group hit the right note with shoppers on Saturday as they performed a rousing selection of classic Christmas carols in the Harvey Centre.

The youngsters from Razed Roof joined carollers from Forest Musical Productions to belt out numbers including Silent Night and Away In A Manger.

The performance raised £320 for the Playhouse-based group, which runs drama classes for people with and without disabilities and recently made it to the final of the National Lottery Awards.

Organiser Barbara Lazarus said: "It was fantastic. We had members of the public singing, with some even dancing a few steps along with the group!"

"We wanted to do our bit to spread a bit of festive cheer while highlighting the work we do... and thanks to the generosity of shoppers we raised £320 for the group."

Design a logo to celebrate Harlow's 65th birthday and win panto tickets

NEXT year marks the 65th anniversary of Harlow New Town and to celebrate the Star has teamed up with Harlow Council to offer a talented young artist the chance to design a special birthday logo.

We are inviting budding designers aged 7-18 to come up with an image which captures what they feel about the town.

The winning entry will be used as the official symbol of the birthday celebrations which are set to take place throughout 2012. The logo needs to contain the words 'Harlow turns 65' and should be bright, inviting and easily understandable.

The winner will get to see their design on posters, leaflets, brochures, letterheads and the internet. They will also win a family ticket worth £52 to this year's Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan.

Keep your logo simple, use only three or four colours and avoid using coloured pencils. Entries should be submitted on an A4 sheet of paper or as a digital image

The deadline for entries is December 23. Each must have the entrant's name, age, address and contact telephone number printed clearly on the reverse. The winning entry will be chosen by a panel including the Harlow Council chief executive Malcolm Morley and the editor of the Star.

Post your entries to 65th Birthday Logo Competition, Harlow Council, Civic Offices, The Water Gardens, Harlow, Essex CM20 1WG or email to harlows65@harlow.gov.uk.

VISITORS to Harlow Town Park on Sunday could be forgiven for thinking they had stumbled across a Father Christmas convention.

More than 230 people dressed as Santa, Mrs Santa and their elves gathered at the Showground for the start of the Star-backed fun run to raise money for St Clare Hospice. It is the third year the hospice has held its Santa Run in Harlow and Sunday's event attracted a record number of entries.

Adults, children, babies in pushchairs and even dogs wearing reindeer antlers or their own Santa outfits took part.

Among those joining in the fun was Harlow MP Robert Halfon, pictured right, who started the participants on their way.

The first Santa home finished in 13 minutes while the last crossed the line at walking pace after 43 minutes.

The event has already raised £3,500 and organisers expect that total to double in the next couple of weeks as sponsorship is sent in.

Tracy Stratford, events fundraiser for St Clare, said: "It is our third year organising the run and each year it gets better and better."

"It still makes us laugh when we see Santas coming across the park from different directions and then set off through the start arch and out on to the course."

"And it is fantastic hearing local motorists driving past beeping their horns in support of the Santas."

She said the hospice wanted to thank Harlow Council, St John Ambulance, Alistage, Speedy Hire and Roz from local Rosemary Connelly fitness group who led the pre-run warm up.

A cheque for £550 was presented to the hospice by Harlow Running Club for £550 to St Clare Hospice.

The money was half of the proceeds from the club's annual Harlow 10-mile run which was held back in July.

Christmas shutdown to save council £100k

HARLOW Council is suspending all but emergency services over the Christmas period in a bid to slash overheads.

The shutdown, which is expected to save the authority over £100,000 through reductions in energy bills and staff pay, will start at 4pm on Friday, December 23 and continue until 9am on Tuesday, January 3.

It will affect all council-run services, although arrangements will be put into place to ensure residents can still contact the authority in the event of an emergency.

Councillor Simon Carter, portfolio holder for resources, said all savings would be pumped back into frontline services.

"This shutdown is part of a drive by the council's own staff to save money and protect jobs through a pay cut," he said.

"Combined with reduced energy and building costs during the shutdown, this measure will save us over £100,000 – money that is being diverted to frontline services."

Council bills can still be paid 24 hours a day with a credit/debit card at www.harlow.gov.uk or by phoning the automated bill payment line on (01279) 446600, while waste and recycling collections will operate on a catch-up schedule following the festive period.

Cllr Carter added: "While buildings may be closed, the council has put arrangements in place so people can contact us in the event of an emergency.

"In addition, information on recycling and waste collections can be found on our website and council bills can be paid online or over the phone at anytime during this period."

The council can be contacted for genuine emergencies during the shutdown on (01279) 446666.

Bharat's delight at torch honour

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertssexnews.co.uk

A FORMER Harlow youth councillor has spoken of his delight after being chosen to carry the Olympic flame during next year's torch relay.

Bharat Thakrar (21) is one of the first people nominated from the East of England region to be offered a provisional place by the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games.

Bharat served on Harlow Youth Council for five years between the ages of 13 and 18. He played a key role in the campaign to build a new skate park in the town and conducted surveys and chaired meetings with local councillors and local businesses to obtain funding for the youth café in West Gate.

"I am over the moon to have been offered the chance to be a torchbearer," he told the Star.

"It is such an honour to have been recognised for the hard work that I have put in to supporting and helping make a change for my peer youth within the community."

"The relay is going to play an important part in bringing communities together from across the UK, and it is such a great opportunity for young people like myself to demonstrate what we are able to achieve."

Eight thousand people were chosen from a shortlist of 28,000 hopefuls to take part in the relay after being selected by sponsors Lloyds

CHOSEN: Above, Bharat Thakrar has been picked to carry the Olympic torch. Above right, Bharat with some of the other successful nominees TSB, Samsung and Coca-Cola.

Bharat will not find out exactly which part of the route he will be asked to carry the torch until March, but it is possible he could find himself leading the procession through Harlow when the relay comes to the town on July 7.

Tony Hall, Harlow Council's Olympic Champion, described Bharat's selection as "great news" for the town.

"To carry the Olympic torch will be a tremendous honour for Bharat, who during his time as a youth councillor did so much for young people," he said.

"We want local people to be involved and benefit from having the Olympic Games on our doorstep and we are working hard to ensure that happens.

"We hope more residents are selected to carry the torch, become gamesmakers, local leaders or are able to witness the torch coming through Harlow."

● MIKE Jackson, chairman of the Harlow-based Presidents Sporting Club, has also been chosen to carry the torch.

Mr Jackson, who lives at Little Hallingbury, said: "It is an immense honour and privilege to have been selected by a panel which included people like Sir Chris Hoy – one of the greatest Olympic athletes we've ever had – to be a torchbearer next year."

"Though it is at this stage conditional and still subject to formal confirmation, I can't think of anything better than be given the opportunity to carry the Olympic torch. It will be one of the greatest moments of my life."

Stay safe by steering clear of unlicensed taxis and cabs

CHRISTMAS revellers are being urged to put their safety first and use only licensed taxis and minicabs.

As the party season gets into full swing, Harlow Council has warned those heading out for drinks with friends and workmates to be wary of unlicensed cabs.

Licences are only issued to drivers and vehicles which have passed stringent checks.

All licensed drivers must carry photo ID and all legitimate vehicles have council licence plates on the rear. Many now display distinctive new door signs showing the council logo and individual licence number.

Nick Churchill, chairman of Harlow Council's licensing committee, said: "We're asking people to stay safe and always double check that the taxi they are using is properly licensed."

"The council regularly inspects all taxis and minicabs it licences to ensure that they were roadworthy and free of defects, and puts drivers through Criminal Records Bureau checks."

"Thankfully reports of illegal trading are now rare but this is due to careful licensing controls that have been introduced."

Sun shone down on jubilee celebrations

IT was a couple of months ago when we turned back the clocks to 1977 after receiving this picture of Upper Stoneyfield residents celebrating the Queen's Silver Jubilee.

The huge street party was organised by a group of six mums living in the neighbourhood and had everyone in the cul-de-sac wearing red, white and blue to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Her Majesty's accession to the throne.

However, one thing that puzzled us here on the Nostalgia desk was that despite reports of rain and wind on the day, the partygoers in the picture look remarkably dry and sun-kissed! Fortunately, reader Irene Bailey, who was one of the organisers, got in touch to clear up any confusion.

"It was a lovely day because we celebrated it early... and a good thing we did," she said. "We celebrated it on the last weekend of May, when actually the jubilee was at the beginning of June."

Irene, who still lives in Upper Stoneyfield and is now aged 74, said it had been a packed day of events for the neighbourhood.

"There were about six tables like the one in the photo lining up the

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk road and activities were going on all over," she said.

"In the evening we had a party just for the adults. However, because we had collected around all the houses before, all the elderly people didn't have to pay. It really was a full day of celebrations!"

Irene, pictured at the back of the group of mums (furthest back on the right), said three of her four children are also in the picture.

"My son Kevin, who would have been 10 at the time, is the boy at the front with his arms up and Keith, then 11, is the second boy in on the left with the dark hair."

"You can also see my youngest son Dennis, who would have been nine, peeping out from under his brother's arm. He is the little blonde boy."

She added: "It was really nice. It is also surprising to look back on the photograph and realise just how many people are no longer in the street."

25 years ago in the Star

➔ A bomb call which turned out to be a hoax sent police rushing to the Harvey Centre on Saturday where everyone was evacuated. The police were alerted by an anonymous telephone call made by what officers believe was a young man. They say they will be investigating further.

➔ New telephone kiosks and an anti-vandalism campaign in schools is planned by British Telecom for the new year. The news comes after MP Jerry Hayes complained on the behalf of a constituent about the state of public call boxes in the town.

➔ A red faced fireman was told to "pull his finger out" by colleagues last week after calling them when he got his finger stuck in a spring clamp. The embarrassed firefighter was carrying out repair work on his daughter's car when the incident occurred.

➔ Harlow based electronics company Cossor have won a £4m contract to supply equipment to the Royal Saudi air force. The company have agreed to produce landing systems and identification friend or foe transponders for Tornado and Hawk aircrafts owned by the Saudis.

School's out for this group of pupils

ARE you one of these happy Brays Grove pupils enjoying their last few hours of school life?

According to Nostalgia contributor Joy Murray, who sent in this picture, it would have been taken in the early 1960s.

"I was taking the photo at the time," she explained. "Everyone would have been around 15 as we all left in our fifteenth year in those days, though I would have only been 14 as my birthday wasn't until the summer."

Joy, now 65 and living near Cambridge, said she struggled with the rules at her secondary school.

"I turned into quite a rebel during my time there," she said. "The headmistress – Mrs Hethrenton I think – was very strict so we didn't really get along.

"I remember I once dyed my hair jet black for no real reason other than I wanted to. She wasn't happy about that."

"I also went through a stage of not wanting to wear school uniform. I'll always remember her screaming at me in front of everyone – including my future husband John – as we were going into class about it once. I had never been so embarrassed!"

After finishing at Brays Grove, Joy got a job as a GPO receptionist and has stayed in touch with quite a few of her school friends.

Dropped kerbs are a benefit to everyone

SIR, I read with interest Mr and Mrs Agnew's letter regarding dropped kerbs (Star, December 8) and can only assume that with this tirade they are not possessors of this facility.

Surely the fact that those householders with such an asset are able to get their cars off the very congested Harlow roads means that it is a benefit to all and allows the likes of the not so fortunate car owners to find more available parking spaces?

By aiming to reduce congestion, this should help to decrease the numbers of cars which are parked on lawns, grass verges, pavements, corners of junctions and even double parked, which seems to be a trend in Harlow irrespective of whether there are spaces available.

The dropped kerb, paid for by the householder, is also of benefit to pedestrians, owners of pushchairs and prams, and people in wheelchairs both mechanised and manual, who would otherwise have to cross at the junctions where dropped kerbs have been supplied by the council and where, quite often, a car is parked across thus blocking access.

The suggestion that drivers should park further away and walk is admirable but would not be of benefit to, for example, my wife who has a spinal disease and would find it difficult to carry shopping any distance.

I have to admit I am fortunate to have a drop-down kerb and off-road parking which was here when I bought the house. This was one of the priorities when viewing, having previously parked in streets and lost various wing mirrors. However this still does not stop people parking across the kerb, often with my car on the slope, and wandering off to visit someone.

I imagine that they assume I have some sort of magic Harry Potter car which leaps over obstructions with one bound.

If you will forgive the pun, in Harlow parking is such sweet sorrow but insisting that off-road parking should not be encouraged can only be counter productive. I do not consider that possessors of this facility are selfish but rather that this facility is of benefit to all.

Name and address supplied - Editor

SIR, Mr and Mrs Agnew want to know why homeowners in Harlow are selfish by installing dropped kerbs. Permission has to be obtained to install a dropped kerb to enable the car driver to park their vehicle off the road. This all comes at a considerable cost to the homeowner.

With cars off the road it keeps the road itself clear and safer.

There are no different laws for homeowners.

Carol Sissons
Jocelyns, Harlow

SIR, I would like to take this opportunity to respond to the letter from Mr and Mrs Agnew.

Firstly, homeowners know what they own or not as the case may be. They also have the right to gain access to their property, regardless of where it is situated.

Those of us who have dropped kerbs have paid a substantial sum of money to the council for this privilege.

Mr and Mrs Agnew's letter indeed smacks of them being selfish and it is a shame they couldn't see this fact when sending in their letter. Perhaps they could do as they say: park a little further from their house, or indeed mine for that matter, and walk or use public transport.

How on earth would they have me gain access onto my driveway without a dropped kerb, coupled with one or two cars parked across for good measure?

Taff Rees
Harlow (address supplied)

Government acted over fuel

SIR, I am grateful for Mike Danvers' letter and understand his concern about rising petrol costs (Letters, December 8).

He is fair to mention the across-the-board increase in VAT which occurred in order to deal with the £120m a day bill of debt interest left by Gordon Brown. However, he didn't mention that the Chancellor cut fuel duty by 1p in April 2011 and stopped Labour's tax escalator, which was brought in to push up fuel duty to astronomical levels.

The e-petition and petrol campaign that I organised in Parliament, was to try and stop the Government from raising fuel duty any further. They listened and only a few weeks ago announced that fuel duty will not rise by 3p in January, as was previously planned. They also lowered the August 2012 increase from 5p to 3p.

This means that, overall, petrol and diesel will be 10p per litre cheaper in Harlow than it would have been if Gordon Brown had stayed in power.

One final point. It is worth noting that next year some benefits will be frozen but most welfare payments will rise with inflation and the basic state pension will rise by more than £5 a week, the largest cash rise in history.

Robert Halfon MP
House of Commons

Petrol costs more in Harlow

SIR, Robert Halfon recently received publicity for championing the motorist over the fuel duty rise. Through your columns I would hope that he would consider a related issue.

On December 7 I had reason to drive to Stevenage and noted that in Harlow the price of regular unleaded sold for £1.34.9p per litre while in Stevenage – only 20 miles away – it was routinely being sold for £1.29.9p per litre.

Perhaps Mr Halfon could explain to me this discrepancy as I cannot but help feel that the Harlow motorist is being systematically ripped off by the retailer and the oil industry alike.

Surely there is a case for relative equity in pricing structures when it comes to petrol. Needless to say, I filled up my tank in Stevenage.

Roger Gaitley
Rundells, Harlow

We're being taken for a ride

SIR, Why is petrol so expensive in Harlow? In my travels to Welwyn Garden City, Hatfield, St. Albans, Watford and Croyley the prices for unleaded petrol are all 5-6p cheaper than in Harlow.

Are the local garages and supermarkets price fixing? Are the residents of Harlow being taken for a ride? No, we are not because we can't afford to be.

Tom Durning
address supplied - Editor

Services are under attack

SIR, Far from ruining Harlow as Councillor Tony Hall suggests (Letters, December 8), Labour over the years achieved massive improvements in the town's amenities and services from which few failed to benefit.

The Town Park, The Playhouse, Harlow Museum, Parndon Wood Nature Reserve, the Leah Manning Centre, the Aneurin Bevan Centre, extensive warden-assisted accommodation for the elderly, aid for sport and the arts, defence of the Gibberd Plan and the green wedges, and support for building homes on appropriate sites – these are only some of Labour's achievements.

Unfortunately, many of these have come under attack in recent years, above all from the present Conservative majority on Harlow Council, for example the discretionary services including the museum.

Instead of indulging in cheap sneers about "loony left philosophies" and bankrupting the council, Cllr. Hall should recognise the need to defend services which improve the quality of life for our people.

Stan Newens
Park Hill, Harlow

Join the ranks of the cyclists

SIR, It is difficult to disagree with Ron Johnson who wonders where all the cyclists are as he does not see any on the relatively new section of cycle track at the east end of Southern Way (Letters, December 1).

I do not know what time of day Mr Johnson travels along that road but if he went along Southern Way just before the start or just at the end of the academic day he would see plenty of Passmores Academy students using the cycle track.

I use it myself from time to time and it can be quite lonely out there without the Passmores pupils. The same can be said about all of the excellent cycle network in Harlow; where are the cyclists?

Cycle Harlow, the local cycle club, is doing its best to promote cycling by organising rides every Saturday afternoon. The Harlow Hub & Spoke at Bush Fair will also help you with cycling skills and maintenance courses, so there is no excuse.

Perhaps Mr Johnson would care to join in and help swell the ranks cycling along Southern Way and beyond.

JEROUNDS JUNIOR

Sporty youngsters from the Pynest Road primary are celebrating after winning a spot in the county finals of an interschools tag rugby competition.

It is the second year in a row that the young side have tasted victory in the district final, winning the crucial game with a golden try in extra time.

The undefeated team will now have the chance to be crowned Essex champions when they take part in the countywide competition next month.

Teacher and team coach Paul Hutchings said: "The team spirit, dedication and determination of the team and all involved was very apparent.

"The children's talent and resolve was proved by keeping up their stamina and drive right through to the bitter end finally winning with a golden try after extra time.

"Myself and the whole school are very proud of what they have achieved."

ST NICHOLAS Generous youngsters have donated their time and toys to help children less fortunate than themselves have a good Christmas.

As part of the Operation Christmas Child shoebox appeal, pupils at the Hobbs Cross Road school were asked to fill a shoebox with toys, sweets and healthcare items to send to youngsters abroad.

The children also decorated their shoeboxes before piling them high for a special assembly.

Head of juniors Rachael Clements said: "Operation Christmas Child is a fantastic scheme that really helps our children to appreciate the things we are all often guilty of taking for granted.

"They all did a fantastic job and particularly enjoyed watching videos of children receiving the shoeboxes last year. Their faces just lit up; it was lovely."

BUSY BEES NURSERY

After a spell of witches, princesses and goblins, there was a happy ending for children at the nursery in The Greenway when they took part in a fairytale themed week.

The youngsters dressed up as their favourite fairytale characters and were told a handful of the most popular stories before impressing parents with their own version of Three Billy Goats Gruff.

"It isn't something we have done before at the nursery but thought it would be a nice fun week for the children that also introduced them to some of the greatest fairytales out there," explained assistant manager Louise Christie.

"They absolutely loved the fairytale week, particularly the parts that involved dressing up! The pre-school children also did a fantastic job with their end performance and we all really enjoyed it."

There's an easier way to help someone switch to digital TV. Get them to call the Help Scheme.

Switching someone to digital can be relatively straightforward. But it can involve coming back to re-tune twice and in some cases replacing the aerial. If you really want to help someone switch, the best way may be to recommend the Switchover Help Scheme.

We can provide anyone aged 75 and over or eligible disabled with:

- Easy-to-use equipment
- An approved installer to supply and install the equipment for them
- A check on their TV aerial and replacement if necessary, where we can
- A 12 month aftercare service including a free helpline

This service is available for just £40 all-inclusive or free if they're eligible and on certain income-related benefits.

Children are stars of club's awards lunch

MORE than 750 children with special needs got into spirit of Christmas at the President's Sporting Club's 26th annual lunch and awards ceremony.

Youngsters from across Essex, Hertfordshire, Cambridge and London enjoyed a traditional Christmas lunch before having their sporting achievements recognised in a ceremony hosted by former world heavyweight boxing champion Frank Bruno at North Weald Airfield.

Pupils from Harlow Fields, Pear Tree Mead and Spinney Junior schools were among those who then got to share their sporting tips with a host of celebrities including 1966 World Cup winner Martin Peters, before wrapping up the event with a cabaret disco and visit from Santa.

Club chairman Mike Jackson said: "It is a fun day for children which also recognises those who have overcome the special needs they have to achieve something really incredible."

"With over 750 children and some really great celebrities the atmosphere was fantastic and everyone had a brilliant time."

He added: "I'd like to add my thanks to staff and students from Harlow College whose support for the event each year is invaluable."

Pictured with some of the celebrity guests – including Frank Bruno, Martin Peters, actor Neil Pearson and Harlow Paralympian Noel Thatcher – is Elliott Shallcross from Harlow Fields School & College.

Earth's 'twin' planet

SCIENTISTS believe they may have discovered a new Earth-like planet capable of supporting life outside our Solar System.

Named Kepler 22-b, it is about twice the size of Earth and is circling a star similar to our Sun around 600 light years away.

It was spotted by the Kepler space telescope, which was launched by American space agency NASA in 2009 on a mission to find planets similar to our own.

The reason space boffins are so excited about the new discovery is that it exists inside the so-called 'Goldilocks-zone' - meaning it is not too hot or cold to support life as we know it.

Crucially, the planet's surface temperature is thought to be around 22 degrees Celsius, which is a little warmer than Earth but still suitable for liquid water.

The experts don't yet know whether the new planet is made up of rock, gas or liquid, but they are certain its discovery is a huge step towards finding a nearby planet capable of supporting human life.

"This is a major milestone on the road to finding Earth's twin," NASA scientist Douglas Hudgins told reporters.

"Kepler's results continue to demonstrate the importance of NASA's science missions, which aim to answer some of the biggest questions about our place in the universe."

By midweek, Mercury ends its rewind, and any travel plans that have stalled, can start to come together. Contractual issues, also speed up. Someone with a more idealistic approach to life can also become a solid friend. You can appreciate their more spiritual ideas on life, or you can grow to like yours Aries. Call me for your in-depth forecast...

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23
Venus has been giving you the push to do last minute home changes ready for Christmas - especially if you're having guests. Yet stern Saturn, and something that you want, or you feel sensitive plan. Fortunately your natural diplomacy will help to overcome any glitches. Call me for more advice...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21
You can balance your lively imagination with practicality and this can be great for coming up with some unusual Christmas gifts, or making your own cards. If you have children, getting into artistic pursuits with them can also be gratifying. You can also feel less affected by a hard to pinpoint nervous tension. Call for more news and advice...

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22
However irresistible someone seems, before you crumple into their arms under the mistletoe at that Christmas bash, ask yourself, are they for real? You can also find out something surprising about someone you already know. Pleasingly Uranus and Mercury edge forwards, and this can ease some tensions. Call me for your love scope in full...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21
Both Uranus and your ruler Mercury end rewinds this week, and even forge a great link between one another. This may see you enjoy a surprise connection with an old friend or have a really fun night out with one of your zaniest of pals. Yet, it may be best to leave money or possessions out of the equation. Call now for your financial scope in full...

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21
You have encountered some obstacles so far this month, but may have found solace in comfort eating, and enjoying seasonal goodies. The Full Moon also suggests that if there has been any hidden opposition, it can make itself known. Have you been inclusive enough? If not, a good branch. Call for more astral advice...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23
Even if you don't appreciate surprises, one that's sprung on you this week could delight. This may bring a job opportunity back into focus, one that you thought had passed you by. Yet someone close to you may be finding life hard going, which concerns you. Fortunately, you'll find common sense solutions to help. Call now for more news...

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20
There have been some paradoxes threaded through your situation, but also dramatic news, and progress. Be assured that as this month goes on, any subtle sense of disquiet, or feelings of isolation will dissipate and those that are no longer central to your plans, will become increasingly less important in your thinking. Call for your in-depth forecast...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23
This can be a tense time of year, not least because most of us are trying to pack so much in. If you gain satisfaction from getting everything just so, this will only pile pressure on yourself. Instead, commit to just doing your best. The relief will be palpable, and you can enjoy life, rather than enduring things. Call your special prediction line for more...

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19
If you've gone through any kind of parting of the ways, be it in a business or personal scenario, raking over the embers may not prove completely edifying. But more than anything you now need to know where you stand. And greater clarity can emerge. In fact, one dazzling brainwave could prove to be a game changer. Call for more astral advice...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23
However much you have been drawn to someone recently in friendship or in love, if there has been a nagging doubt around this, it may be because your sixth sense is calling out. With Saturn, don't ignore this, but with your ruler doing an about turn, your mind can clear as to your tactics around professional issues. Don't be fearful of an about turn, I think you will feel less anxious by midweek. Call for your love scope in full...

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20
There can be tensions in one friendship, and it could all be down to the way you both think about things, which may be very different. Fortunately, with Mercury doing an about turn, your mind can clear as to your tactics around professional issues. Don't be fearful of an about turn, I think you will feel less anxious by midweek. ## High-flying Peter breaking records at the box office

HARLOW Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan is soaring to new heights after smashing box office records.

The show does not finish until January 3 but has already become the theatre's most successful panto to date.

Earlier this week ticket sales surpassed last year's total of 15,628, bringing in receipts of £210,476.

Theatre manager Scott Ramsay said: "We've already broken records and we've still got three weeks of performances to go.

"It's great to see that so many new customers are coming along to experience the magic of live theatre."

The show stars Jacob Scipio (CBeebies' Kerwhizzator) as Peter Pan, Chris Ellison (Detective Inspector Burnside in TV dramas The Bill and Burnside) as Captain Hook, Tom Swift as Smee and Patrick Jacobs as Starkey. Tickets are available from (01279) 431945 or online at www.playhouseharlow.com. A percentage of every ticket sold will be paid to the Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity.

Robin's panto pals are making merry

By CHRIS MOSS

TALENTED young drama students from a Harlow performing arts school are giving audiences a very merry Christmas after landing key roles in this year's panto at Rhodes arts centre.

Robin Hood & The Babes In The Wood, which opened at the Bishop's Stortford theatre last week, features six Phoenix Theatre School members as the eponymous hero's band of merry men.

The community panto is being produced by former Playhouse manager and Phoenix principal Phil Dale, who told the Star he was thrilled to be able to offer the roles to youngsters from the Harlow-based school.

"We've got a really strong group of guys who are in their last year at the school," he said.

"Most of them cut their teeth on the pantomimes and musicals I produced during my time at the Playhouse and they will be moving off to university or drama school next year, so it's great that I'm once again producing a slice of festive entertainment on a large-scale to give the students one last chance to perform."

The show also features Phoenix primary drama tutor Faye Linden in the title role.

Faye, who also teaches at Holy Cross Primary School, was understudy to Robin Hood when Phil last produced the Playhouse pantomime in 2006.

"When I produced the panto at the Playhouse I made a very clear decision to concentrate on good quality family entertainment with very high production values," he added.

"I'm delighted to be given the opportunity to continue on this journey at Rhodes."

● Robin Hood & The Babes In The Wood continues until January 2. For more information on performance times and ticket prices, log onto www.rhodesbishopsstortford.org.uk or call the box office on (01279) 651746.

Youngsters conjure up magical show

IN four separate shows more than 120 youngsters set out to capture the excitement and spirit of this special time of year - and they certainly did with a highly professional performance.

I joined the sell-out audience for the Sunday afternoon performance at Potter Street Community Centre which had been beautifully transformed into a Christmas-themed stage complete with colour-changing presents.

REVIEW

The Magic Of Christmas Makin' Steps Performing Arts Potter Street Community Centre

The wonderful afternoon's entertainment offered something for everyone to enjoy with a wide variety of song and dance, which was at such a high standard it was hard to believe I was at a local performance and not a West End show!

Performers aged from four years upwards put their heart and soul into the varied programme, which included strong hip hop numbers and a breathtaking rendition of Jar Of Hearts sung by five talented young girls.

A nicely choreographed routine to The Most Wonderful Time Of The Year then showcased the talents of the school's male performers, who danced and lifted their partners around the stage like Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers.

Aside from the excellent choreography and superb musical arrangements, congratulations must also go to the hidden team of volunteers behind the scenes who helped keep things running smoothly.

The whole production was a credit to school head Margaret Wright and her staff. It certainly captured the magic of Christmas.

New game's afoot for supersleuth Sherlock

ELEMENTARY:
Robert Downey Jr as Sherlock Holmes and Jude Law as Dr John Watson in SHERLOCK HOLMES: A GAME OF SHADOWS

SHERLOCK HOLMES: A GAME OF SHADOWS certificate 12A, 2h09m

THE sleuthing is elementary in Guy Ritchie's action-packed sequel to his 2009 reinvention of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's fictional detective.

The dense narrative taxes what Hercule Poirot referred to as the "little grey cells", connecting minuscule clues in the mind of Sherlock Holmes through high-speed flashbacks in a style that will be familiar to fans of the TV series CSI: Crime Scene Investigation.

Holmes (Robert Downey Jr) has cut a swathe through the criminal fraternity of late 19th century London aided by trusty sidekick Dr John Watson (Jude Law), who is bidding farewell to crime-solving to marry Mary Morstan (Kelly Reilly).

Newspapers are filled with shocking headlines about anarchist bombings in Strasbourg and Vienna, the apparent overdose of a Chinese opium dealer and the death of an American steel magnate.

Holmes deduces these events are linked to Professor James Moriarty (Jared Harris) and the sleuth persuades Watson to join him on one final globe-trotting adventure.

En route, the double-act encounters gypsy fortune teller Sim (Noomi Rapace) and Holmes' brother Mycroft (Stephen Fry), who is well-connected in the British government.

A bruising battle of wits with Moriarty becomes personal when the diabolical professor promises to make Watson and his new wife suffer for Holmes's meddling.

For all its intellectual rigour, A Game Of Shadows often feels like a series of ambitious action set-pieces which have been bolted together by screenwriters Michele Mulroney and Kieran Mulroney.

Explosions and stunts are orchestrated at breakneck speed by Ritchie, whose repeated use of slow-motion bloats the film's cumbersome running time.

Downey Jr and Law ease back into familiar roles as the quixotic genius and his strait-laced foil, Rapace is suitably feisty in her first English-speaking role and Harris chews on every syllable with menacing intent.

Eddie Marsan and Geraldine James reprise their roles as Inspector Lestrade and long-suffering landlady Mrs Hudson respectively, but neither is afforded sufficient screen time to make an impact.

There are some sparkling comic interludes, such as when Sim arranges a horse for Holmes to chase after Moriarty and the sleuth explains that he is averse to four-legged travel because "they're dangerous at both ends and crafty in the middle."

Fry is a delight too as pompous, pontificating Mycroft, including a hysterical sequence reminiscent of Austin Powers, which sees Holmes' sibling wander naked about his home, sparing his blushes (and ours) with strategically placed furnishings.

Thank heavens for small vases!

>>>still on screen

Puss In Boots (3D & 2D) Young Puss (voiced by Antonio Banderas) is abandoned at an orphanage where kind Imelda (Constance Marie) raises the kitten as her own. Initially picked on by the boys, Puss learns to fight to survive and helps protect fellow outcast Humpty Alexander Dumpty (Zach Galifianakis). Many years later, the surrogate brothers join forces with sexy pickpocket Kitty Softpaws (Salma Hayek) to steal magic beans currently in the possession of murderous outlaws Jack (Billy Bob Thornton) and Jill (Amy Sedaris). These beans are rumoured to grow a beanstalk that leads to the giant's castle and the greatest treasure of all: the Golden Goose.

New Year's Eve A starry cast of familiar faces hope to be struck by Cupid's arrow before the clock strikes midnight in New York's Times Square. Randy (Ashton Kutcher) is stuck in an elevator with a beautiful stranger (Lea Michele), while Paul (Zac Efron) agrees to help record company secretary Ingrid (Michelle Pfeiffer) achieve all of her resolutions in exchange for tickets to the biggest party of the year. Elsewhere in the city, Tess (Jessica Biel) prepares to give birth, businessman Sam (Josh Duhamel) searches for his soul mate, and terminally ill Stan (Robert De Niro) clings onto life under the care of nurse Aimee (Halle Berry).

Happy Feet Two (3D & 2D) Mumble the penguin (Elijah Wood), who learned to dance in the first film, has raised a son called Erik (Ava Acres). Like his father, Erik is struggling to find his rhythm in Emperor Land and searches for answers with best friends Boadicia and Atticus in the company of wise-cracking Ramon (Robin Williams). Mumble chases after the little ones and returns home to discover a giant iceberg has slammed into their home, trapping all of the Emperor penguins to certain doom. Noah The Elder (Hugo Weaving) attempts to keep calm with the help of trusted penguins like Seymour (Common) but the situation is dire. With time running out, Mumble compels Ramon to marshal the Adelle penguins to help with the rescue effort.

Hugo Twelve-year-old Hugo Cabret (Asa Butterfield) is raised by his father (Jude Law), who works at a museum and has a passion for cinema and mechanical devices. The old man dies, leaving behind an intricate automaton, and Hugo is forced to live secretly in the station with his hard-drinking Uncle Claude (Ray Winstone) who maintains the clocks. Following Claude's death, Hugo continues to tend the clocks. An encounter with bookish Isabelle (Chloe Grace Moretz), goddaughter of toy shop owner Papa Georges (Sir Ben Kingsley), catalyses a journey of self-discovery that Hugo hopes will lead to a message from beyond the grave from his father.

The Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) has chosen vampire Edward (Robert Pattinson) over werewolf Jacob (Taylor Lautner). Jacob is heartbroken but Bella and Edward marry in front of her parents (Billy Burke, Sarah Clarke) and his blood-sucking clan. Bella falls pregnant during their honeymoon in Rio de Janeiro and her half-human, half-vampire child grows at an accelerated rate. The Quileute wolf pack led by alpha male Sam (Chaske Spencer) prepares to kill Bella and her unborn abomination.

Arthur Christmas Santa has been the figurehead of the Yuletide season for decades and proudly oversees this year's delivery of presents in his hi-tech spacecraft, masterminded with military precision by eldest son Steve (Hugh Laurie). Youngest son Arthur (James McAvoy) excitedly answers correspondence from the children of the world, including a young British girl called Gwen (Ramona Marquez). But when a malfunction in the loading bay goes unnoticed by the elves and Gwen doesn't receive her pink bicycle, Arthur joins forces with Grandsanta (Bill Nighy) and wrapping elf Bryony (Ashley Jensen) to deliver her gift.

>>>movies for juniors

The Smurfs When evil wizard Gargamel chases the tiny blue Smurfs out of their village, they tumble from their magical world into New York City.

Spy Kids: All The Time In The World Retired spy Marrsna Wilson (Jessica Alba) is called back into action and invites her new stepchildren along for the adventure as she attempts to stop the evil Timekeeper from taking over the world.

ALVIN AND THE CHIPMUNKS: CHIPWRECKED certificate U, 1h27m

THE singing, helium-voiced chipmunks are all at sea in this third instalment of the inoffensive series.

It's doubtful that Alvin And The Chipmunks: Chipwrecked will be nominated for any glittering prizes, although the unfathomable success of previous films at the box office will doubtless continue here.

Dave (Jason Lee) heads off on a luxury cruise with singing critters Alvin (voiced by Justin Long), Simon (Matthew Gray Gubler), Theodore (Jesse McCartney) and the feisty Chipettes – Britney (Christina Applegate), Eleanor (Amy Poehler) and Jeanette (Anna Farris).

As usual, Alvin gets into various scrapes, incurring the wrath of the ship's captain and former manager Ian (David Cross), who works as the onboard entertainer.

While Dave takes a nap, Alvin and the gang take flight on a kite and are blown onto a tropical island with an active volcano. There they meet DHL worker Zoe (Jenny Slate), who has lost her sanity.

While the chipmunks return to nature, Dave and Ian race against time to rescue them from their new home before it is covered in molten lava.

Much improved four-bed semi

coverproperty

Location Freshwaters, Harlow

Category Four-bed semi-detached

Additional Completely refurbished, two reception rooms, landscaped rear garden, garage

Guide price £325,000-£375,000

Agent Haart, 4 West Gate, The High, Harlow. Telephone (01279) 443311

THIS week's cover property is within easy reach of local shops and schools as well as Harlow Town Park.

It is a four-bedroom semi-detached family home of the type that very rarely comes on to the market.

The house, which has been the subject of much improvement, has two reception rooms, a refitted kitchen, four-piece bathroom and downstairs cloakroom. There is a landscaped rear garden and a driveway to the front.

The front door leads into the entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and doors off to the lounge and dining room.

The lounge has a double glazed window to the front aspect and double glazed French doors onto the back garden.

The dining room overlooks the front of the house and has a door through to the kitchen. This has been tastefully fitted with a range of wall and base units, a butler sink with cupboard beneath, a range oven, a fitted dishwasher and space for an American-style fridge/freezer.

There is an understairs cupboard and a door to the lounge and inner hall, which in turn has a door to the rear garden, a door to the WC and garage.

The first floor landing provides access to all four bedrooms, the bathroom and loft. Bedroom one has fitted wardrobes and a chest of drawers.

The family bathroom has an obscured window to the rear aspect and a free-standing claw foot roll top bath with separate shower cubicle.

In the back garden there is a patio area with inset lighting. The remainder is laid to lawn and enclosed by panelled fencing, with pedestrian access to the front. The summerhouse will remain.

There is parking on the front driveway and there is also a garage.

Call Haart of Harlow on (01279) 443311 for further details or to arrange a viewing.

Charming period property for £375,995

ELM Cottage, an extended period property in Lower Road, Little Hallingbury, has been tastefully decorated to create a delightful family home.

There are three bedrooms, a large living room with fireplace and a separate dining room. Also downstairs is a delightful kitchen/family room, cloakroom and utility room.

Upstairs is a luxury en-suite bathroom to the master bedroom as well as two further double bedrooms and a family shower room.

There is parking at the front of the house and the back garden is approximately 200ft and west facing.

Wright and Co on (01279) 600400 can provide further details.

Yours for £189,995

LIGHT, bright and stylish is how you'll find this two-bedroom terraced property in Davenport on the Church Langley development in Harlow.

With its open plan fitted kitchen, conservatory/dining room and lounge, the house has a comfortable, contemporary feel from the moment you walk through the door.

There is double glazing and allocated parking as well as a neat back garden.

Call Kings Group at Church Langley on (01279) 410084 for further details or to arrange a viewing.

Priced at £589,950

THIS family home in The Chantry, Harlow, is particularly well located for local junior and senior schools.

Within half a mile radius of The Stow and Old Harlow High Street with a wealth of shops between them, the house is in what is often thought of as one of the prettiest areas within the Mark Hall location.

The property has four bedrooms, a good size lounge/diner and ground floor cloakroom.

Call Howick and Brooker estate agents on (01279) 418888 to make a viewing appointment.

Buy this for £249,995

LOCATED close to the town centre it is no wonder that Fold Croft, Harlow, is a popular spot.

This larger-than-average four bedroom family home has an integral garage, large lounge, full width rear extension making an extended kitchen/breakfast room and a large dining room.

There is also a downstairs shower room, first floor family bathroom and a driveway to the front.

Access to the back garden is via a side pathway. The patio area and lawn are all enclosed with panelled fencing.

Many estate agencies simply act as a broking service that matches people to property. However, we are acutely aware that there is far more to successful selling than this alone. Indeed, over 35% of property sales in this country fail to reach completion, falling through for various reasons.

One of the main reasons is that a buyer simply gets cold feet and withdraws as a result of "buyer remorse". This is a familiar phenomenon to estate agents and occurs when a buyer feels overwhelmed by the apparent enormity of the decision to buy and takes the more comfortable "low-risk" option and does nothing.

Perhaps the buyer is offered another property which they prefer, or something else comes on the market that makes the price they have offered on your home look expensive.

Your buyer may lose their job, or get a promotion. They might decide to get married or divorced; they might inherit or win a fortune, or their business may be experiencing difficulties. They could even die!

Whilst these types of issues are generally unavoidable and naturally have a profound effect on people's decisions, the main problem concerns timing. Because offers in this country are not binding until exchange of contracts, the longer the time between offer and exchange, the greater the opportunity there is for the buyer or seller to decide to withdraw.

We go to great lengths to help you move, and work tirelessly to reduce this window of opportunity. That's why we allocate a dedicated sales progressor to every transaction, whose job it is to facilitate a fast exchange of contracts. This will include a focus on the buyer qualification process (if this has not already been done), although most time will be spent in helping other estate agents and solicitors involved in linked property sales as a chain is only as strong as its weakest link. Our aim is that your link should be the strongest.

at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. During 2011 HRGO Recruitment embraced the current climate and supported both clients and candidates over the year and we have been fortunate to retain a committed team, some of whom have been with us for over a decade!

It has proven to be a successful year despite the downturn in recruitment with many of our long-standing clients valuing the service we offer, as well as our National Sales Team introducing new opportunities in the area.

We held two Open Evenings for candidates seeking Employment and a Client Workshop to clarify the Agency Workers Regulations that came into force 1st October 2011.

We would like to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year

As we enter 2012 with a bang, we are offering clients 10% on all Permanent Introduction

Fees throughout the month of January

01279 503505

5 Northgate End, Bishop's Stortford, Hertfordshire, CM23 2ET www.hrgo.co.uk

We then had the changes to the National Minimum Wage and are proud to say that we did not pass these increases on to our client charge rates.

We are optimistic about 2012 and not only do we have the Olympics and the exciting opportunities this will give us as a business, there is also the Queens' Diamond Jubilee to celebrate.

With the Christmas Festivities upon us please note our office closure dates:-

Articles for Sale

Turn your unwanted items into cash!

easy ads

In-paper and online

For items under £250 in the Herts & Lea Valley Star,
Harlow Star, Mercury Series
and the Observer Series

To advertise your articles for sale for the price of just a phone call or text, just follow these two simple steps...

1 Before calling us, write down all that you want your advertisement to say. There is a minimum of 12 words per advert, but you can have as many classified adverts as you need. Remember, strictly one item per phone call and the item must be priced at £250 or less. Any items received that do not carry a price will not be published.

2 Now call us on 0905 624 2025

LINES OPEN 24 HOURS PER DAY SEVEN DAYS PER WEEK.

This service lasts approximately two minutes, plus the length of your message. Calls charged at £1.02 per minute plus network extras; calls from mobile will cost considerably more. Service provided J-Media (UK) Ltd.

or text 87070

Start your text with HEN then your advert to a maximum of 20 words. You do not need to add your phone number unless it is different to the mobile used to text the advert.

Example: HEN (space) G. Plan two piece suite, two seater sofa and armchair, super condition £99. Charged at £1.50 per text plus normal network charges. Only one item per text.

If you have any queries relating to advertisements placed via this service please call our helpline...

Helpline: 0844 8001188

OPENING HOURS: 9AM - 5PM

Please allow for a possible two/three week delay. This offer is restricted to private articles for sale and does not include articles wanted, pets, cars, motor spares, boats, motorcycles, caravans, property and investments, imitation or unlicensed firearms, offensive weapons and cannot be cancelled or amended. Advertisements will be deleted where callers name, address and telephone number have not been provided.

For articles under £250 you can also place an advert at our office or simply call 01992 526666 or email advertising@hertssexnews.co.uk

New year promises to be promotion thriller

THERE will be all to play for when Harlow resume their East Men's Hockey League division four south east programme after the Christmas break.

Harlow's home draw against Old De Ferrians on Saturday left them in fourth spot on 25 points, but they are only a point behind the three teams above them. They all have 26 points and the promotion battle promises to be a real tussle.

Although Harlow are still unbeaten in their new home at Leventhorpe School, they must not be so wasteful in the New Year as they were five days ago.

Harlow 2, Old de Ferrians 2
East Men's Hockey League, div four south east

Harlow held a two-goal lead before Ferrians came back to snatch a point. Harlow went ahead midway through the first half. Dan Munro picked out the run of Craig Cholerton who fired the ball low into the corner. Harlow doubled their lead on 45 minutes. A swift counter-attack ended with Cholerton slotting home a second after he had knocked the ball around the stranded, onrushing goalkeeper. However, the hosts' advantage was halved three minutes later when Ferrians scored through a drag flick from the top of the 'D'.

Ferrians won another penalty corner on the hour mark which was converted in the same manner as the first. HARLOW: Hastler, Castle, Tovell, Grace, Krzaska, Symonds, Smith, Cholerton, Kirk, Munro, Boughtwood. Sub: Mace.

● HARLOW'S scheduled game against Colchester II in the Essex Women's Hockey League premier division was postponed because of frost.

Wonder Wixon!

Thamesmead Tn 1, Harlow Tn 3
Ryman League, division one north

PIERS Wixon's rich vein of form continued as he netted a brace in Harlow Town's victory at Thamesmead Town.

His two goals on Saturday made it five in the last six league matches for the ex-East Thurrock United striker and extended the Hawks' unbeaten league run to six games.

Chapman said: "When he first came here [in September] a few people wondered if he was good enough.

"I knew he needed a run of games and knew it was only a matter of time before he scored goals. His second goal was outstanding."

Midfielder Ryan Maxwell and forward Murat Karagul were ruled out with hamstring injuries and were replaced respectively by Leon Lalite, back from a ban, and James Peagram.

Harlow went ahead after 26 minutes. A shot from Wixon, pictured right, took a slight deflection and looped over the home keeper into the net.

The visitors dominated the first half and the Kent side did not have a single shot on goal. The Hawks continued to have the edge before their lead was doubled in the 68th minute.

Wixon beat two home players on the edge of the box before he cut in and curled a superb strike over and around the keeper into the top corner.

The hosts were stung by this goal and Bertrand Bossu was forced to make a couple of saves before Thamesmead halved the deficit on 78 minutes.

Bossu made one initial good save, but Chuck Duru pounced to tuck home the rebound. Chapman said: "They had a bit of pressure for five minutes but I was not worried."

Any doubt about the result was removed on 88 minutes. Peagram collected a long ball out of defence and used his pace to beat a defender before finishing from a tight angle.

Chapman added: "Their pitch was not the best. It was bumpy and boggy but we were very professional. We were excellent for the 90 minutes and played very well.

"Jack [Haverson] and Ryan [Kirby] did really well at the back for us and Getro [Kilapi] put in a good shift in midfield. James Peagram had a really good game as well."

HARLOW TM: Bossu, Taylor, Brown, Haverson, Kirby, Kilapi, Lalite, Marshall (Bruno 80), Wixon, Peagram, Deane. Subs not used: Barnard, Wheeler, Bunn. Att: 61.

>>>Sport in brief

BASKETBALL: It was not third time lucky for Harlow Hawks when they lost 79-66 at close rivals Ware Jokers in division one of the Herts County League.

Ware had won the two previous meetings between the sides and continued their good run over their neighbours on Sunday.

The first quarter saw Luke Atkinson set up openings for his Hawks team-mates Shab Niaz and Joe Taffe-Atkins to score.

However, the visitors failed to score in the last two minutes of the first quarter.

Ware took a 20-14 lead into the second quarter.

The Hawks then played poorly at both ends before a time-out by the visitors and a rant from coach Shab Niaz got the required response.

Chris Jackson and Joe Taffe-Atkins combined for 11 points, but Ware continued to cause problems with their speed and led 42-30 at the halfway point.

Luke Atkinson posed Ware problems and Shab Niaz scored back to back three-pointers, but their efforts were more than outweighed by the hosts' attacking efforts.

The Hawks trailed 69-51 going into the final quarter which saw excellent defensive work from Luke Atkinson who blocked shot after shot.

The visitors kept going and reduced the deficit, but failed to put enough pressure on at the offensive end as they were unable to stop Ware's hoodoo over them.

HARLOW HAWKS: S. Niaz (15pts), L. Atkinson (14), Taffe-Atkins (14), Ball (8), S. Atkinson (7), Jackson (5), Z. Niaz (3), Jones, Allan, Oyerinde.

Quartet seal medals at GB Championships

FOUR podium spots were claimed by Harlow Tae Kwon Do Club members at the British Championships in Telford, Shropshire.

The 11-strong team from the Traces Road club, were accompanied by a coach full of supporters.

Jag Molines (10) was second in his age group in the pee-wee yellow belt division with Jacob Chappell (10) coming a very close third after having to spar with Jag in the semi-final.

Edriene Padua (10) was third in her age group lightweight green belt division and

>>taekwondo

Rebecca Howlett (10) gained a silver medal in the tag team sparring.

Harlow Tae Kwon Do Club instructor Mick Sullivan said: "Praise also goes to Caprice Williams, Ramon Seow, Jack Rootsey, Jason Lockwood, Jack Jenkins, Max Hegarty and Tymoteusz Bakalarczyk who competed.

"They also gave 100 per cent effort, while also gaining valuable experience and insight into what happens at the competitions and great preparation for next time."

England go with the Chloe for judo squad

JUDO star Chloe Nunn has been selected for the England pre-cadet squad.

Chloe, who has just turned 12 and is a member of Harlow Judo Club, has performed well this year.

She has won gold medals in various competitions including the Ipswich Green Belt and Below Championships and the Northbrooke Mini-Mon Championships.

Her selection comes after another Harlow member, Adam Pope, achieved a bronze medal when representing Great Britain in the Berwick special needs G-judo Championships in Holland.

Meanwhile, Harlow came second at a 50-club event at leisurezone sports centre in Second Avenue, Harlow.

The event was won by Pinewood Judo Club, consisting of professional players and widely recognised as the most successful club in Europe.

Gold were gained by five Harlow members: Martin Suvitra, Thomas Rees, Rebecca Howlett, Alex Hemming and Brooke Canham in their respective events.

The aim set by Harlow's senior club coach Mick Ellis is for the club to top the medal table at next year's event.

The tournament was also attended by Robert Halfon, MP for Harlow.

Other Harlow silver medalists at the event were: Kai Jorden, Emily Forbes, Freddie White and Jodie March.

Bronze medalists were: Bradley Johnson, Samuel Smith, Tom Cully, Oliver Balding, Tommy March, Jake Bennett, Lewis Mackie, Ik Ehigie-Obano, Sam Bradley, Isaac Stanesby, Aimee Monk, Alex Johnson, Nikhil Singh, Erick Suvitra, Chloe Nunn and Adam Pope.

IN BRIEF: One gold medal and two bronzes were gained by Harlow Running Club members in the Essex Veterans Cross Country Championships.

The race was held on a tough, hilly 5-mile woodland course at Chigwell Row. Roy Steven clocked an excellent time of 38 minutes and 2 seconds to win the Vet 60 gold medal, ahead of John Tennant who took the bronze medal in 39:06.

Linda Selby's superb time of 52:16 sealed the women's Vet 60 bronze medal.

Other Harlow RC results: John Bull (Vet40) 40:37; Graham Pugh (Vet 50) 42:32; Dionne Jones (Vet 40) 43:13.

Depleted Harlow third in cross country league

>>cross country

LEADING male and female runners were missing for Harlow Running Club when they came third in the first round of the East Herts and West Essex Cross Country League.

The race was held on a five-mile farmland course in Ware.

Harlow had 35 runners competing in the four-club event.

Glen Paxman was the first Harlow finisher, coming ninth.

He was closely followed by club colleagues Rob Lowe (10th), Jamie Jephcott (14th), Alan Broughton (15th) and Andy Levett (16th).

Paula Reynolds was the first Harlow finisher in the woman's race, coming 5th.

She was followed home by Sharon Wright (7th), Dionne Jones (12th) and Zoe Delaney 17th (in her first cross country race).

The women's team race was won by Bishop's Stortford Running Club.

They were followed by Saffron Striders (2nd), Harlow RC (3rd) and Ware Joggers (4th).

The men's team race was won by Saffron Striders, while Ware Joggers, Harlow and Bishop's Stortford were second, third and fourth respectively.

Saffron Striders were first overall.

They were followed by Ware Joggers (2nd), Harlow (3rd) and Bishop's Stortford (4th).

Other Harlow RC results: men - 18th Paul Jeffrey-Read; 24th Steve McKenzie; 26th

David Ayling; 29th Mark Goodger; 30th Andy Terrell; 33rd Jason Haigh; 39th Roy Steven; 42nd Peter Jackson; 43rd John Tennant; 44th John Bull; 53rd Sean Flynn; 54th Alan Cootes; 58th Pasquale Pellicchia; 59th Graham Pugh; 61st Matt Jones; 63rd Andy Bradley; 66th Jon Steadman; 87th Terry Heapy.

Women: 41st Janice Page; 44th Paula Green; 47th Karen Moir; 48th Clair O'Sullivan; 51st Jo Galea; 52nd Linda Selby; 55th Alison Bull; 56th Susan Dewen.

Previously, Susan Dewen finished the Gunpowder Park 5km Run at Waltham Abbey in 28.44.

Win in Hong Kong gives bowler top 20 World ranking

SUCCESS: Steve Mitchinson with the English Singles trophy which secured him qualification for the World Champion of Champions event (s)

STEVE Mitchinson has achieved a global bowls ranking of 20th after he came fifth in the World Champion of Champions tournament.

The 36-year-old bowls player from Harlow also partnered English Commonwealth Games medallist Natalie Melmore to win the Consolation Plate in the Golden Jubilee Mixed Pairs at the same event in Hong Kong.

The men's tournament was split into two groups of 14. Mitchinson was representing England for the first time outside the UK.

Mitchinson qualified after winning the English Singles in August 2010.

He played 13 games over five days.

The games consisted of two sets of nine ends plus a three-end tie-break if required.

Mitchinson, of Challinor, finished second in his group with seven wins and four losses.

He then lost two sets to nil

>>bowls

in the play-off for a semi-final spot.

Mitchinson, a member of Tye Green Indoor Bowls Club in Bush Fair, finished 5th in the competition overall.

He said: "I hoped to qualify out of the group, which I did.

"I was delighted to come fifth. I played some of my best bowls, but at other times not so well. It's pretty special to be 20th in the World and get some recognition."

He added: "The weather was very mixed over there. One day it was very hot and the next day it was raining very heavily and then there was the humidity."

"It was a great honour to play against some of the best players in the world."

The World Champion of Champions included national champs from all over the world.

Around 30 countries were represented.

As it was the Hong Kong Bowls Association's 50th anniversary it asked all the singles competitors to play in a mixed pairs event along with a number of local teams. Mitchinson teamed up with Melmore.

There were six groups of 10 with the top two from each group going through to the last 16 plus the four best 3rd-place teams.

The English pair won their group after losing just one game to Fiji.

Mitchinson and Melmore lost in the last 16 to Ryan Bester from Canada (a Commonwealth medallist) and his playing partner, from Hong Kong, by four shots.

Mitchinson and Melmore went into the Consolation Plate and they made the final where they played Hong Kong married couple Colin and Joanna Nam.

"On the final end of the 15-end match we were 1 up in the match but 1 down on the end," said Mitchinson.

With his second last bowl Mitchinson managed to play a shot out to the head to leave him with a match-winning lie.

Mitchinson said: "Their skip missed, giving us the match and victory in the Consolation Plate, not quite the victory we were after but a victory nonetheless."

Oliver's army of golds shows Eastern promise

>>gymnastics

OLIVER German starred as he picked up four gold medals at the Eastern Counties recreational apparatus finals in Ipswich.

The nine-year-old Harlow Gymnastics Club member came first in the vault, floor, parallel bars and single bar in the boys 8-9 competition.

He was one of nine gymnasts from the Broadley Road club representing Essex in the competition.

Harlow club-mate Matthew Brough (8) secured silver medals in all four disciplines, finishing just behind Oliver.

In the girls age 8-9 competition, Millie Chinnery's outstanding vault earned her the silver medal.

Success continued in the age 10-11 competition.

In the boys event, Archie Knight (10) won a gold medal on the vault.

In the girls 10-11 event, Olivia Collier won a gold on the vault and was in 13th spot in the beam, while Ila Marie Chaplin was awarded the silver medal for the vault.

Lucy Barylski (10) came fourth in the beam, missing out on the bronze medal by the narrowest margin.

The senior girls also excelled.

Sadie Irving (17) received a gold medal for vault and silver medal for bars, while 16-year-old Kiera Gibson's bar performance was rewarded with the bronze medal.

MOVING ON: Defender Lee Gledhill, right, who has served Harlow Town well, has signed for Maidstone (HSP0765715)

Mixed fortunes for Town

THE blow of losing experienced defender Lee Gledhill has been softened by the news that Hawks have been handed a plum game at nPower League One club Colchester United in the last eight of the Essex Senior Cup. Police officer Gledhill has switched to Ryman division one south side Maidstone to be closer to his South London home. Gledhill left Harlow earlier in the season citing family commitments for being unable to play, although he did come back for one game last month. Hawks boss Danny Chapman explained: "Lee knows the Maidstone manager and he was asked to play as they have had some injuries." Meanwhile, Harlow Town are set to play at the plush, new Weston Homes Community Stadium in January.

Boss wants a Christmas bonus

'Hawks must push play-off quest on with four wins'

By DAVID RIMMER

DANNY Chapman is aiming for maximum points from Harlow Town's next four Ryman League division one north games over the Christmas and New Year period.

The Hawks visit Great Wakering Rovers this Saturday before they host Ware on Boxing Day and Chatham Town on New Year's Eve.

This is followed by a fixture at Potters Bar Town on January 2. The Hawks boss said: "The aim over this Christmas period is 12 points although 10 would be nice.

"It's an extremely important time. If we do well, it sets us up for the second part of the season but if we do not we are a bit adrift."

He added: "We have come back and not lost in five or six games. If we win our game in hand we are only six points behind the leaders."

"It's a question of maintaining consistency and pushing on."

Great Wakering and Ware would seem to be easier games than some, but Chapman is taking nothing for granted as he looks ahead to this Saturday's clash.

Chapman said: "They have had a new manager come in and have been a stronger side over recent weeks and they will not be easy."

Skipper Danny Brown is serving the first game of his three-match suspension and misses out this Saturday. This follows his red card in the 2-0 league win over Ilford 12 days ago.

The Harlow manager said Michael Deane, who has operated on the left wing, may fill Brown's left-back berth.

Chapman said that defenders Lamar Lemonious and Donny Barnard may figure as they attempt to get over their respective ankle and groin injuries.

"They were due to play against Cheshunt in the reserves [last night] and we will have to see how they come through," he said.

Chapman said that striker James Bunn (thigh injury) will not figure this weekend and hamstring injuries have ruled out forward Murat Karagul and midfielder Ryan Maxwell.

Karagul's one-month loan from fellow Ryman League division one north club Wingate & Finchley is due to expire on Monday and no decision has been made on his future.

Chapman explained: "I need to sit down and review it with Christian Wheeler and Tom Cunningham."

"He has done well for us. His work rate is second to none."

'Rams must bounce back from second loss'

THE Rams need to bounce back when they host Wanstead at home this Saturday.

Harlow suffered their second league defeat this season when they lost at South Woodham Ferrers five days ago, but the result was not an entire surprise.

Harlow, who are still second, had won six out of nine games by margins of less than seven points but they came out on the wrong end of a tight game in mid-Essex.

Rams player-coach Rhys Powell said: "We have to bounce back like we did after we lost at Holt."

"Wanstead are a good side and [played well] when we beat them at their place earlier this season so they will be up for it."

Powell saw his first action since September after he sustained an eye injury when he came on as a late substitute at South Woodham.

Flanker Danny Wright made his Rams league debut after impressing in the second team.

Wright did well before going off with a foot injury on 35 minutes and was replaced by Mark Coggins.

Coggins went into the centre and Luke Bowering switched to the back row.

Earlier, South Woodham went ahead early through a penalty before Michael Dobson replied with one on 10 minutes.

However, the hosts regained the lead on 20 minutes after weak Harlow defence allowed them to score a try which was converted.

The luckless Dobson then hit a post twice from a penalty and a drop kick attempt.

Powell said: "These were crucial. We would have won if they had gone over."

Woodham extended their lead shortly before the break through an unconverted try.

Harlow trailed 15-3 at half-time.

Powell added: "The kicks were crucial, but we did not play well in the first half and lacked the intensity we have shown."

On 50 minutes Dobson kicked a penalty to narrow the gap.

Midway through the second period, South Woodham went down to 14 for 10 minutes after a forward was sin-binned for a ruck offence.

Harlow exploited the extra man when David Roze drove over from a rolling maul for an unconverted 65th-minute try.

But the Rams could not find a match-winning try in the last 15 minutes.

As they had lost by seven points or less, Harlow gained a bonus point.

Powell added: "We were much better in the second half but it was too late."
